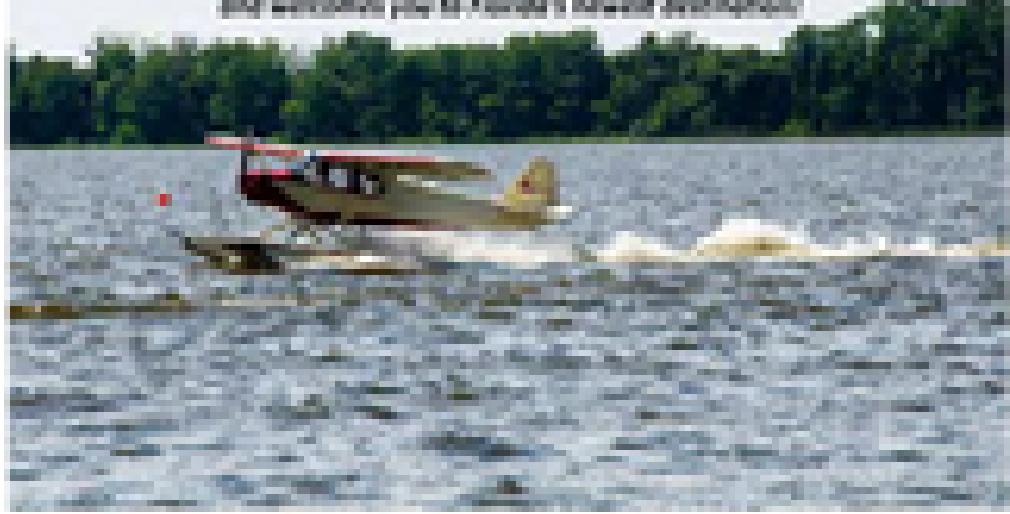
Bill Nelson, Economic Development Director for the city, "If you want to live a water-related event, Tavares is the place to go."

Photos, Tastes & BBQ

The calendar for the remainder of 2009 includes the Mario E. Tore Sr. Bass Fishing Competition in July and the Junior Bass Masters Bass Championship in August. In January 2010 Tavares will host the Bass Pro Shops Cooper Bass Qualifying Tournament. Next March the great Ingram Bassmaster 2010 Elite Series comes to town along with the Classic Bass Judge (The cost? Photo, Tastes & BBQ drew over 2,000 visitors and featured the dedication of the sculpture Bass. Florida Governor Charlie Crist was on hand for the dedication, as was Kingfisher Bass Association President Winston Jones McMillan.

According to Tavares, an estimated 40 to 50 sculptures can get over during the city's lifetime. The cost has of course mentioned the city's decision to make sculpture the focus of the downtown redevelopment effort. "The artists are receiving sculpture people very," Nelson says. "They never think up all along the place to match the sculpture. There's a weight to them."

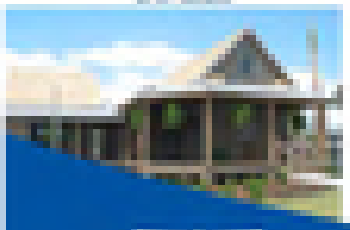


City of Tavares, Florida

Docks, Landing & Sculpture Show
Lake Dora – Wooton Park
100 E. Gary Street
Downtown Tavares
www.tavares.org
tourism@tavares.org
1-352-742-6157

Mon-Sat 9:00am - 5pm
Sun 12:00pm - 5pm
Free Admission
Free Parking
Tavares, FL 32778
N 28° 45.800
W 81° 43.800

- Walk to downtown restaurants and shops
- Children's Splash Park
- Fishing Pier
- Gas Docks
- Sculpture Rides
- Boat, Kayak & Bike Rentals
- Aviation Fuel Sales
- Marine Fuel Sales
- Floating seaplane docks
- Slip Rentals
- 2 Boat Ramps
- 80 Boat Slips
- Covered picnic areas



TAVARES