Get Comfortable With Retiring

“It’s taking me longer to adjust to retirement than I thought it would.”

You Can Multitask...

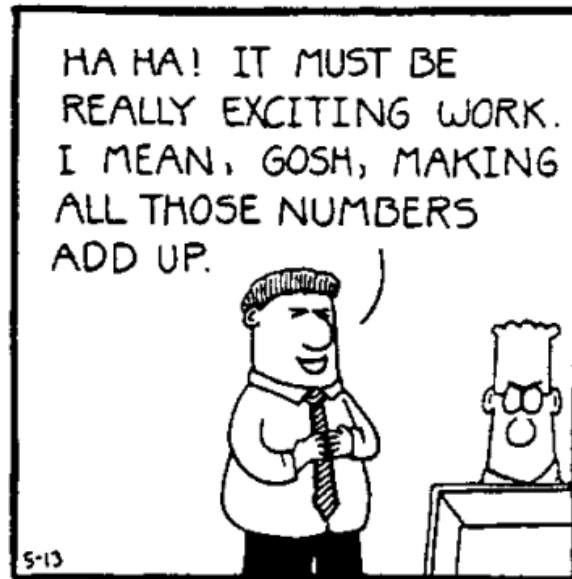

“Now that you’re retired, you can finally do fun stuff you never had time for! Tip over the trash, chew on the sofa, bark at squirrels...”

Do You Really Need Money?

My Story

Final Thoughts

- There's a time when you should consider moving aside a little to let others have the opportunity to enhance their professional credentials.
- Think about whether you really need additional income, or just the need to be of service and matter to your community.
- Take the opportunity to do things that you didn't have time to do when you were working.
- Get your finances and cash flow in order.
- Recognize what you know and what you don't know; attorneys, tax consultants, and financial advisors can be worth their cost.
