

Ron Carlee, D.P.A., Old Dominion University; Director, Center for Regional Excellence, Strome College of Business; Visiting Assistant Professor, School of Public Service. Dr. Carlee works to promote a regional vision of growth and innovation and to recruit and train the next generation of local government professionals. His career has been in local government as City Manager, Charlotte, NC (2013-2016); County Manager, Arlington, VA (2001-2009); and COO for ICMA (2009-2013). He is a Fellow in the National Academy of Public Administration.