

C. Douglas Smith is Vice President of The Montpelier Foundation, overseeing the Robert H. Smith Center for the Constitution working to strengthen domestic and international democracy. He has a background in public policy, humanitarian development, and organizational strategy. He is the former Chairman of the Boards of Heifer Project International, the UK charity Send a Cow, and recently completed a term with Lutheran Family Services of Virginia. He holds degrees from James Madison University, Lexington Theological Seminary, and is a Fellow of the Sorensen Institute for Political Leadership at the University of Virginia. In his free time, Doug is the Co-Founder of Sly Clyde Ciderworks located in Hampton, Virginia. He and his family live in Charlottesville, Virginia.