ICMA MIDWEST REGIONAL NOMINATING COMMITTEE PROCESS FOR IDENTIFICATION AND SELECTION OF NOMINEES FOR ICMA VICE PRESIDENT
Adopted March 30, 2012; Renewal made evergreen by the Board September 2015

Association Commitment
To contribute to finding a number of motivated and qualified members to serve on the ICMA Executive Board while assuring equal opportunity within the region for all states to be represented while also contributing to the achievement of a balanced board that represents the profession and those served by it.

To fulfill this commitment, state associations in the region will be proactive in identifying candidates and grooming future candidates by:

- Encouraging members within their state associations to become members of ICMA.
- Encouraging members within their state associations to begin service to ICMA through task forces and committees or through other forms of contribution to the association at the state and national/international level.
- Encouraging members within their states to aspire to service on the ICMA Board and plan for appropriate opportunities to represent their state on the board.
- Recruiting talented minorities and women into local government and into membership in state associations and ICMA.

State Associations
The following states are included in ICMA’s Midwest region: Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Ohio, Wisconsin

The following state associations have affiliation agreements with ICMA: Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Ohio, Wisconsin

Regional Nominating Committees
1. Each Regional Nominating Committee will be composed of:
   - The president of each primary state association that has an affiliation agreement with ICMA or his/her designee.
   - A representative in the region from NFBPA, IHN and NACA. Each of these national affiliate organizations has the opportunity to appoint a representative in the region to the Committee.
   - The ICMA President or a designee from the ICMA Executive Board.

   All members of the Committee must be Full (voting) Members of ICMA.

2. The Senior Regional Vice President, in consultation with the two other vice presidents, will select the chair from a state not in the geographical rotation for that round. The Senior Vice President has the responsibility to orient and prepare the Chair for the interview process.

3. Regional Nominating Committees will interview candidates annually at their Regional Summits and will select the nominee for their region within the timeframe established by the ICMA Executive Board.

4. Regional Nominating Committees will follow the ICMA Executive Board’s policy to select a nominee who will provide a balanced board that represents the profession and those served by it. The committees will use the following criteria, established by the board, to evaluate candidates:
   - Experience in local government;
• Service to ICMA and its affiliates;
• Diversity in the nominees and the continuing board members with whom they will serve in terms of geography, ethnicity, gender, position, and size and type of local governments;
• Demonstration of ethical behavior;
• Support of the profession through the ICMA Fund for Professional Management or by other means;
• Commitment to follow the election guidelines;
• Quality or caliber for board service; and,
• Participation in ICMA’s Voluntary Credentialing Program, if eligible.

5. Regional Nominating Committees will only consider candidates who meet the requirements and expectations of ICMA for board members and who submit the required materials:
   • A statement of no more than two pages on their qualifications for the position they are seeking and on their views of issues facing ICMA.
   • A resume

6. Regional Nominating Committees will interview candidates that have been endorsed by a state and/or affiliate association or who are qualified by petition as defined in the ICMA Constitution. Individual state associations are encouraged to submit more than one candidate for consideration. The Committees will each consider not less than two qualified candidates.

7. Regional Nominating Committees will abide by the schedule and guidelines established by the ICMA Executive Board.

Geographical Protocol

8. To achieve representational balance in the region, the following rotation system has been agreed upon in the Midwest:

The rotation system among the states in the Midwest Region shall be established according to the following assignment of states:

   State Group “A”
   Minnesota, Missouri, Wisconsin, Iowa, Indiana
   State Group “B”
   Michigan, Illinois, Ohio

Vice Presidential positions shall be nominated according to the following rotation:

   Vice President Position #1
   Selected by: State Grouping “A”
   Years to be Elected: 2015, 2018, 2021

   Vice President Position #2 Designated as Non-CEO Position
   Selected by: Not included in Rotation System.
   Years to be Elected: 2013, 2016, 2019

   Vice President Position #3
   Selected by: State Grouping “B”
   Years to be Elected: 2014, 2017, 2020

The Non-CEO position shall not be from the same state as one of the “traditional” Midwest Regional Vice Presidents, unless there are no other qualified candidates from the region.
No state may succeed itself on the ICMA Board (there should be a minimum one-year gap for any state’s representation on the board), unless there is no qualified candidate from another state in the State Group.

No state in the region shall be represented on the ICMA Board more than twice in any ten-year period, unless there is no qualified candidate from another state in the State Group.

Additional Issues

9. ICMA will provide a series of communications annually to ensure that all ICMA members are aware of the nominating process and that state and affiliate leaders are advised of the process in a timely fashion. ICMA will provide staffing for the nominations process.

10. Regional Nominating Committees will each submit an annual report to the ICMA Executive Board with their assessment of the selection process for that year and with any suggestions for changes to the nominations guidelines.

11. In 2015, this agreement was reviewed by those state associations affiliated with ICMA and the ICMA Regional Vice Presidents to ensure that ICMA members from all states in the region have a fair opportunity to serve on the ICMA Executive Board. In September 2015, the ICMA Executive Board eliminated any fixed date for renewal, relying on the process outlined below for any changes.

Any proposed amendments to the agreement will be considered at a Regional Summit for this region and made available for review by the state associations at least 60 days in advance of that Summit. Amendments could be effective no sooner than the following nominations cycle. Approval shall require a vote of two-thirds of the state associations affiliated with ICMA to amend the agreement. If no amendments are offered or approved, the agreement will automatically continue.
ICMA MOUNTAIN PLAINS REGIONAL NOMINATING COMMITTEE PROCESS FOR IDENTIFICATION AND SELECTION OF NOMINEES FOR ICMA VICE PRESIDENT
Adopted May 4, 2012; Renewal made evergreen by the Board September 2015

Association Commitment
To contribute to finding a number of motivated and qualified members to serve on the ICMA Executive Board while assuring equal opportunity within the region for all states to be represented while also contributing to the achievement of a balanced board that represents the profession and those served by it.

To fulfill this commitment, state associations in the region will be proactive in identifying candidates and grooming future candidates by:
  • Encouraging members within their state associations to become members of ICMA.
  • Encouraging members within their state associations to begin service to ICMA through task forces and committees or through other forms of contribution to the association at the state and national/international level.
  • Encouraging members within their states to aspire to service on the ICMA Board and plan for appropriate opportunities to represent their state on the board.
  • Recruiting talented minorities and women into local government and into membership in state associations and ICMA.

State Associations
The following states are included in ICMA’s Mountain Plains region: Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, Wyoming

Several of these states are grouped under the GOSCMA umbrella: Idaho, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wyoming. (It is recognized that individual states may choose to have separate state associations as well and those states may nominate.)

The following state associations have affiliation agreements with ICMA: Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, GOSCMA, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Texas, and Utah.

Regional Nominating Committees
1. Each Regional Nominating Committee will be composed of:
   • The president of each primary state association that has an affiliation agreement with ICMA or his/her designee.
   • A representative in the region from NFBPA, IHN and NACA. Each of these national affiliate organizations has the opportunity to appoint a representative in the region to the Committee.
   • The ICMA President or a designee from the ICMA Executive Board.

   All members of the Committee must be Full (voting) Members of ICMA.

2. The Senior Regional Vice President, in consultation with the two other vice presidents, will select the chair from a state not in the geographical rotation for that round or from a state represented on the ICMA Executive Board by a Regional Vice President. The Senior Vice President has the responsibility to orient and prepare the Chair for the interview process.

3. Regional Nominating Committees will interview candidates annually at their Regional Summits and will select the nominee for their region within the timeframe established by the ICMA Executive Board.
4. Regional Nominating Committees will follow the ICMA Executive Board’s policy to select a nominee who will provide a balanced board that represents the profession and those served by it. The committees will use the following criteria, established by the board, to evaluate candidates:
   - Experience in local government;
   - Service to ICMA and its affiliates;
   - Diversity in the nominees and the continuing board members with whom they will serve in terms of geography, ethnicity, gender, position, and size and type of local governments;
   - Demonstration of ethical behavior;
   - Support of the profession through the ICMA Fund for Professional Management or by other means;
   - Commitment to follow the election guidelines;
   - Quality or caliber for board service; and,
   - Participation in ICMA’s Voluntary Credentialing Program, if eligible.

5. Regional Nominating Committees will only consider candidates who meet the requirements and expectations of ICMA for board members and who submit the required materials:
   - A statement of no more than two pages on their qualifications for the position they are seeking and on their views of issues facing ICMA.
   - A resume

6. Regional Nominating Committees will interview candidates that have been endorsed by a state and/or affiliate association or who are qualified by petition as defined in the ICMA Constitution. Individual state associations are encouraged to submit more than one candidate for consideration. The Committees will each consider not less than two qualified candidates.

7. Regional Nominating Committees will abide by the schedule and guidelines established by the ICMA Executive Board.

Geographical Protocol

8. To achieve representational balance in the region, the following rotation system has been agreed upon in the Mountain Plains:

   The rotation system among the states in the Mountain Plains Region shall be established according to the following assignment of states:
   a. State Group “A” – Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Utah and GOSCMC (representing Idaho, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wyoming.)
   b. State Group “B” – Texas

   Vice Presidential positions shall be nominated according to the following rotation:
   a. Vice President Position #1
      Selected from: State Group “A”
      Years to be Elected: 2013, 2016, 2019
   b. Vice President Position #2
      Selected from: State Group “B”
      Years to be Elected: 2015, 2018, 2021
c. Vice President Position #3 (Non-CEO Position)
   Open to all qualified individuals in the Mountain Plains Region
   Years to be Elected: 2014, 2017, 2020

For Vice President Positions #1 and #3, no state may succeed itself on the ICMA Board unless there is no qualified candidate from another state in the State Group. In addition, nominations should give preference to a state that is not represented on the ICMA Board when making its selection from among qualified candidates.

Additional Issues

9. ICMA will provide a series of communications annually to ensure that all ICMA members are aware of the nominating process and that state and affiliate leaders are advised of the process in a timely fashion. ICMA will provide staffing for the nominations process.

10. Regional Nominating Committees will each submit an annual report to the ICMA Executive Board with their assessment of the selection process for that year and with any suggestions for changes to the nominations guidelines.

11. In 2015, this agreement was reviewed by those state associations affiliated with ICMA and the ICMA Regional Vice Presidents to ensure that ICMA members from all states in the region have a fair opportunity to serve on the ICMA Executive Board. In September 2015, the ICMA Executive Board eliminated any fixed date for renewal, relying on the process outlined below for any changes.

Any proposed amendments to the agreement will be considered at a Regional Summit for this region and made available for review by the state associations at least 60 days in advance of that Summit. Amendments could be effective no sooner than the following nominations cycle. Approval shall require a vote of two-thirds of the state associations affiliated with ICMA to amend the agreement. If no amendments are offered or approved, the agreement will automatically continue.
Association Commitment
To contribute to finding a number of motivated and qualified members to serve on the ICMA Executive Board while assuring equal opportunity within the region for all states to be represented while also contributing to the achievement of a balanced board that represents the profession and those served by it.

To fulfill this commitment, state associations in the region will be proactive in identifying candidates and grooming future candidates by:

- Encouraging members within their state associations to become members of ICMA.
- Encouraging members within their state associations to begin service to ICMA through task forces and committees or through other forms of contribution to the association at the state and national/international level.
- Encouraging members within their states to aspire to service on the ICMA Board and plan for appropriate opportunities to represent their state on the board.
- Recruiting talented minorities and women into local government and into membership in state associations and ICMA.

State Associations
The following states are included in ICMA’s Northeast region: Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont. The District of Columbia is also included.

The following state associations have affiliation agreements with ICMA: Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania

Regional Nominating Committees

1. Each Regional Nominating Committee will be composed of:
   - The president of each primary state association that has an affiliation agreement with ICMA or his/her designee.
   - A representative in the region from NFBPA, IHN and NACA. Each of these national affiliate organizations has the opportunity to appoint a representative in the region to the Committee.
   - The ICMA President or a designee from the ICMA Executive Board.

   All members of the Committee must be Full (voting) Members of ICMA.

2. The Senior Regional Vice President, in consultation with the two other vice presidents, will select the chair from a state not in the geographical rotation for that round. The Senior Vice President has the responsibility to orient and prepare the Chair for the interview process.

3. Regional Nominating Committees will interview candidates annually at their Regional Summits and will select the nominee for their region within the timeframe established by the ICMA Executive Board.

4. Regional Nominating Committees will follow the ICMA Executive Board’s policy to select a nominee who will provide a balanced board that represents the profession and those served by it. The committees will use the following criteria, established by the board, to evaluate candidates:
• Experience in local government;
• Service to ICMA and its affiliates;
• Diversity in the nominees and the continuing board members with whom they will serve in terms of geography, ethnicity, gender, position, and size and type of local governments;
• Demonstration of ethical behavior;
• Support of the profession through the ICMA Fund for Professional Management or by other means;
• Commitment to follow the election guidelines;
• Quality or caliber for board service; and,
• Participation in ICMA’s Voluntary Credentialing Program, if eligible.

5. Regional Nominating Committees will only consider candidates who meet the requirements and expectations of ICMA for board members and who submit the required materials:
   • A statement of no more than two pages on their qualifications for the position they are seeking and on their views of issues facing ICMA.
   • A resume

6. Regional Nominating Committees will interview candidates that have been endorsed by a state and/or affiliate association or who are qualified by petition as defined in the ICMA Constitution. Individual state associations are encouraged to submit more than one candidate for consideration. The Committees will each consider not less than two qualified candidates.

7. Regional Nominating Committees will abide by the schedule and guidelines established by the ICMA Executive Board.

Geographical Protocol

8. To achieve representational balance in the region, the following rotation system has been agreed upon in the Northeast:

   At any given time, the “traditional” Northeast Vice Presidents on the ICMA Executive Board will represent different states within the region based on a North/South rotation. The “Non-CEO” Northeast Vice President will not be included in this rotation, but will be subject to the other provisions of this protocol.
   a. The Northern Tier will consist of the following states: Connecticut; Maine; Massachusetts; New Hampshire; Rhode Island; Vermont
   b. The Southern Tier will consist of the following states: Delaware; District of Columbia; Maryland; New Jersey; New York; Pennsylvania

Vice Presidential positions shall be nominated according to the following rotation:
   a. Vice President Position #1
      Selected from the northern tier
      Years to be Elected: 2014, 2017, 2020

   b. Vice President Position #2
      Selected from the southern tier
      Years to be Elected: 2013, 2016, 2019

   c. Vice President Position #3 (Non-CEO Position)
      Open to all qualified individuals in the Northeast region
      Years to be Elected: 2015, 2018, 2021
3. The Non-CEO Vice President will not be subject to the North/South rotation, and may be from any state in the northeast region, subject only to the following requirements:
   a. No state may succeed itself on the Board.
   b. The Non-CEO shall not be from the same state as one of the “traditional” Northeast Vice-Presidents, unless there are no other qualified candidates from the region.

4. No state may succeed itself on the Board. (If VP from State A is in his/her final year, the next person coming on the Board should not be from State A). Stated differently, there should be a minimum one-year gap for any state’s representation on the Board.
   a. Exception: If there is not a qualified candidate from another state in the tier, a state may succeed itself.

5. No state in the region will be represented on the Board more than twice in any ten-year period unless there is not a qualified candidate from another state in the tier.

6. Nominations shall give preference to qualified candidates from states that have not been represented on the ICMA Executive Board most recently.

Additional Issues

7. ICMA will provide a series of communications annually to ensure that all ICMA members are aware of the nominating process and that state and affiliate leaders are advised of the process in a timely fashion. ICMA will provide staffing for the nominations process.

8. Regional Nominating Committees will each submit an annual report to the ICMA Executive Board with their assessment of the selection process for that year and with any suggestions for changes to the nominations guidelines.

9. In 2015, this agreement was reviewed by those state associations affiliated with ICMA and the ICMA Regional Vice Presidents to ensure that ICMA members from all states in the region have a fair opportunity to serve on the ICMA Executive Board. In September 2015, the ICMA Executive Board eliminated any fixed date for renewal, relying on the process outlined below for any changes.

   Any proposed amendments to the agreement will be considered at a Regional Summit for this region and made available for review by the state associations at least 60 days in advance of that Summit. Amendments could be effective no sooner than the following nominations cycle. Approval shall require a vote of two-thirds of the state associations affiliated with ICMA to amend the agreement. If no amendments are offered or approved, the agreement will automatically continue.
ICMA SOUTHEAST REGIONAL NOMINATING COMMITTEE PROCESS FOR IDENTIFICATION AND SELECTION OF NOMINEES FOR ICMA VICE PRESIDENT
Adopted March 16, 2012; Renewal made evergreen by the Board September 2015

Association Commitment
To contribute to finding a number of motivated and qualified members to serve on the ICMA Executive Board while assuring equal opportunity within the region for all states to be represented while also contributing to the achievement of a balanced board that represents the profession and those served by it.

To fulfill this commitment, state associations in the region will be proactive in identifying candidates and grooming future candidates by:
- Encouraging members within their state associations to become members of ICMA.
- Encouraging members within their state associations to begin service to ICMA through task forces and committees or through other forms of contribution to the association at the state and national/international level.
- Encouraging members within their states to aspire to service on the ICMA Board and plan for appropriate opportunities to represent their state on the board.
- Recruiting talented minorities and women into local government and into membership in state associations and ICMA.

State Associations
The following states are included in ICMA’s Southeast region: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia

The following state associations have affiliation agreements with ICMA: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia

Regional Nominating Committees

1. Each Regional Nominating Committee will be composed of:
   - The president of each primary state association that has an affiliation agreement with ICMA or his/her designee.
   - A representative in the region from NFBPA, IHN and NACA. Each of these national affiliate organizations has the opportunity to appoint a representative in the region to the Committee.
   - The ICMA President or a designee from the ICMA Executive Board.

   All members of the Committee must be Full (voting) Members of ICMA.

2. The Senior Regional Vice President, in consultation with the two other vice presidents, will select the chair from a state not in the geographical rotation for that round. The Senior Vice President has the responsibility to orient and prepare the Chair for the interview process.

3. Regional Nominating Committees will interview candidates annually at their Regional Summits and will select the nominee for their region within the timeframe established by the ICMA Executive Board.

4. Regional Nominating Committees will follow the ICMA Executive Board’s policy to select a nominee who will provide a balanced board that represents the profession and those served by it. The committees will use the following criteria, established by the board, to evaluate candidates:
• Experience in local government;
• Service to ICMA and its affiliates;
• Diversity in the nominees and the continuing board members with whom they will serve in terms of geography, ethnicity, gender, position, and size and type of local governments;
• Demonstration of ethical behavior;
• Support of the profession through the ICMA Fund for Professional Management or by other means;
• Commitment to follow the election guidelines;
• Quality or caliber for board service; and,
• Participation in ICMA’s Voluntary Credentialing Program, if eligible.

5. Regional Nominating Committees will only consider candidates who meet the requirements and expectations of ICMA for board members and who submit the required materials:
   • A statement of no more than two pages on their qualifications for the position they are seeking and on their views of issues facing ICMA.
   • A resume

6. Regional Nominating Committees will interview candidates that have been endorsed by a state and/or affiliate association or who are qualified by petition as defined in the ICMA Constitution. Individual state associations are encouraged to submit more than one candidate for consideration. The Committees will each consider not less than two qualified candidates.

7. Regional Nominating Committees will abide by the schedule and guidelines established by the ICMA Executive Board.

Geographical Protocol

8. To achieve representational balance in the region, the following rotation system has been agreed upon in the Southeast:

   At any time, the “traditional” Southeast Vice Presidents on the ICMA Executive Board will represent different states within the region based on a north/south rotation. The non-CEO position will not be included in this rotation, but will be subject to other provisions of the protocol.
   a. The northern group will consist of the following states: Kentucky; North Carolina; Tennessee; Virginia; West Virginia
   b. The southern group will consist of the following states: Alabama; Florida; Georgia; Louisiana; Mississippi; South Carolina

Vice Presidential positions shall be nominated according to the following rotation:

Vice President Position #1
Selected from the northern group
Years to be Elected: 2014, 2017, 2020

Vice President Position #2
Selected from the southern group
Years to be Elected: 2013, 2016, 2019

Vice President Position #3 (Non-CEO Position)
Open to all qualified individuals in the Southeast region
Years to be Elected: 2015, 2018, 2021
The non-CEO Vice President will not be subject to the north/south rotation, and may be from any state in the southeast region, subject only to the following requirements:

a. No state may succeed itself on the Board.

b. The non-CEO shall not be from the same state as one of the “traditional” Southeast Vice Presidents, unless there is no other qualified candidate from the region.

Except as provided below, no State may succeed itself on the Board. (For example, if State A is in his/her final year, the next person coming on the Board should not be from State A). There shall be a minimum of a one-year gap for any state’s representative on the Board unless there is not a qualified candidate from another state in the group.

No state in the region will be represented on the Board more than twice within a 10 year period, unless there are no other qualified candidates.

Nominations shall give preference to qualified candidates from states that have not been represented on the ICMA Board in the past five (5) years.

Additional Issues

9. ICMA will provide a series of communications annually to ensure that all ICMA members are aware of the nominating process and that state and affiliate leaders are advised of the process in a timely fashion. ICMA will provide staffing for the nominations process.

10. Regional Nominating Committees will each submit an annual report to the ICMA Executive Board with their assessment of the selection process for that year and with any suggestions for changes to the nominations guidelines.

11. In 2015, this agreement was reviewed by those state associations affiliated with ICMA and the ICMA Regional Vice Presidents to ensure that ICMA members from all states in the region have a fair opportunity to serve on the ICMA Executive Board. In September 2015, the ICMA Executive Board eliminated any fixed date for renewal, relying on the process outlined below for any changes.

Any proposed amendments to the agreement will be considered at a Regional Summit for this region and made available for review by the state associations at least 60 days in advance of that Summit. Amendments could be effective no sooner than the following nominations cycle. Approval shall require a vote of two-thirds of the state associations affiliated with ICMA to amend the agreement. If no amendments are offered or approved, the agreement will automatically continue.
ICMA WEST COAST REGIONAL NOMINATING COMMITTEE PROCESS FOR IDENTIFICATION AND SELECTION OF NOMINEES FOR ICMA VICE PRESIDENT ADOPTED APRIL 6, 2012; Renewal made evergreen by the Board September 2015

Association Commitment

To contribute to finding a number of motivated and qualified members to serve on the ICMA Executive Board while assuring equal opportunity within the region for all states to be represented while also contributing to the achievement of a balanced board that represents the profession and those served by it.

To fulfill this commitment, state associations in the region will be proactive in identifying candidates and grooming future candidates by:

- Encouraging members within their state associations to become members of ICMA.
- Encouraging members within their state associations to begin service to ICMA through task forces and committees or through other forms of contribution to the association at the state and national/international level.
- Encouraging members within their states to aspire to service on the ICMA Board and plan for appropriate opportunities to represent their state on the board.
- Recruiting talented minorities and women into local government and into membership in state associations and ICMA.

State Associations

The following states are included in ICMA’s West Coast region: Alaska, California, Hawaii, Nevada, Oregon, Washington

The following state associations have affiliation agreements with ICMA: Cal-ICMA, Nevada, Oregon, Washington

Regional Nominating Committees

1. Each Regional Nominating Committee will be composed of:

   - The president of each primary state association that has an affiliation agreement with ICMA or his/her designee.
   - A representative in the region from the National Forum for Black Public Administrators (NFBPA), the International Hispanic Network (IHN) and the National Association of County Administrators (NACA). Each of these national affiliate organizations has the opportunity to appoint a representative in the region to the Committee.
   - The ICMA President or a designee from the ICMA Executive Board.

   All members of the Committee must be Full (voting) Members of ICMA.

2. The Senior Regional Vice President, in consultation with the two other vice presidents, will select the chair from a state not in the geographical rotation. In the case of the Non-CEO position, the Senior Regional Vice President can select the chair from any of the states. The Senior Vice President has the responsibility to orient and prepare the Chair for the interview process.
3. Regional Nominating Committees will interview candidates annually at their Regional Summits and will select the nominee for their region within the timeframe established by the ICMA Executive Board.

4. Regional Nominating Committees will follow the ICMA Executive Board’s policy to select a nominee who will provide a balanced board that represents the profession and those served by it. The committees will use the following criteria, established by the board, to evaluate candidates:
   - Experience in local government;
   - Service to ICMA and its affiliates;
   - Diversity in the nominees and the continuing board members with whom they will serve in terms of geography, ethnicity, gender, position, and size and type of local governments;
   - Demonstration of ethical behavior;
   - Support of the profession through the ICMA Fund for Professional Management or by other means;
   - Commitment to follow the election guidelines;
   - Quality or caliber for board service; and,
   - Participation in ICMA’s Voluntary Credentialing Program, if eligible.

5. Regional Nominating Committees will only consider candidates who meet the requirements and expectations of ICMA for board members and who submit the required materials:
   - A statement of no more than two pages on their qualifications for the position they are seeking and on their views of issues facing ICMA.
   - A resume

6. Regional Nominating Committees will interview candidates that have been endorsed by a state and/or affiliate association or who are qualified by petition as defined in the ICMA Constitution. Individual state associations are encouraged to submit more than one candidate for consideration. The Committees will each consider not less than two qualified candidates and will each select, by secret ballot, one nominee for the election ballot. Other candidates can qualify for the ballot by petition.

7. Regional Nominating Committees will abide by the schedule and guidelines established by the ICMA Executive Board.

Geographical Protocol

8. To achieve representational balance in the region, the following rotation system has been agreed upon in the West Coast:

   The rotation system among the states in the West Coast Region shall be established according to the following assignment of states:

   b. State Group “B” – California

Vice Presidential positions shall be nominated according to the following rotation:

   a. Vice President Position #1
Selected from: State Group “A”
Years to be Elected: 2013, 2016, 2019

b. Vice President Position #2

   Selected from: State Group “B”
   Years to be Elected: 2015, 2018, 2021

c. Vice President Position #3 (Non-CEO Position)

   Open to all qualified individuals in the West Coast Region
   Years to be Elected: 2014, 2017, 2020

Additional Issues

9. ICMA will provide a series of communications annually to ensure that all ICMA members are aware of the nominating process and that state and affiliate leaders are advised of the process in a timely fashion. ICMA will provide staffing for the nominations process.

10. Regional Nominating Committees will each submit an annual report to the ICMA Executive Board with their assessment of the selection process for that year and with any suggestions for changes to the nominations guidelines.

11. In 2015, this agreement was reviewed by those state associations affiliated with ICMA and the ICMA Regional Vice Presidents to ensure that ICMA members from all states in the region have a fair opportunity to serve on the ICMA Executive Board. In September 2015, the ICMA Executive Board eliminated any fixed date for renewal, relying on the process outlined below for any changes.

   Any proposed amendments to the agreement will be considered at a Regional Summit for this region and made available for review by the state associations at least 60 days in advance of that Summit. Amendments could be effective no sooner than the following nominations cycle. Approval shall require a vote of two-thirds of the state associations affiliated with ICMA to amend the agreement. If no amendments are offered or approved, the agreement will automatically continue.