

2019 ICMA Annual Conference Sponsorship Expression of Interest

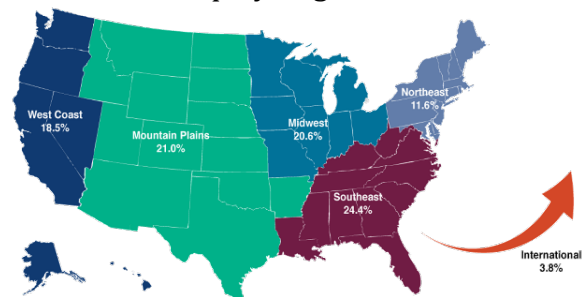

ICMA is looking to appoint major sponsors for the 2019 Annual conference, to be held October 20-23 in Nashville, TN. Your sponsorship will showcase your business and gain name recognition for your products and services within the local government market. Plus, you'll benefit from being associated with an ethical and well-regarded organization and play a highly visible role in supporting ICMA's mission and membership. An ICMA sponsorship will provide organizations access to more than 12,000 influential local leaders and future leaders.

ICMA membership includes the key decision makers in local government, the chief administrative officers--city, town, and county managers. These managers handle the day-to-day operations that keep services up and running, while planning for the future at the same time. They run local government operations, engage community stakeholders, develop and implement the budget, and procure products and services. Over 91% of ICMA Members are involved the procurement of products and services for their communities with an average budget of $3.1 million.

Being a sponsor is the perfect way to:

- Extend your brand
- Reach the right audience
- Amplify your message
- Utilize a diverse mix of messaging channels
- Customize your program

ICMA is offering sponsorships with specific levels that could include exclusivity in core areas like Communications, Financial Services, Healthcare, Technology, Transportation, and Infrastructure.

ICMA sponsorship selections will be based on level of sponsorship selected, engagement history with ICMA field of expertise, public sector presence, BBB rating, value derived by ICMA and our members, impact on local government and communities, and mission alignment with improving local governments throughout the world. ICMA will award sponsorships beginning January 1, 2019.
