

ahead if you are looking for something specific.

After a building or remodeling project, you may have leftover building material. Consider making usable materials or house fixtures available for others to use. It may be just what someone else is looking for.

Business	Accept	Sell
All State Salvage ..... 651-332-8344 Older architectural items, staircases, plumbing, electrical, stained and leaded glass, moldings, fixtures, furniture, windows, interior and exterior doors and toilets; commercial and residential.	✓	✓
Architectural Antiques ..... 612-332-8344 1330 Quincy St NE, Minneapolis Restoration or salvage, commercial and residential.	✓	✓
Bauer Brothers Salvage ..... 612-521-9492 2532 2 nd Ave N, Minneapolis General building materials.	✓	✓
Better Homes &amp; Garbage ..... 612-644-9432 Minneapolis Salvage and sell reusable building materials; sell by appointment only www.bhngandgarbage.com	✓	✓
City Salvage Antiques ..... 612-627-9660 505 1 st Ave NE, Minneapolis Buy and sell high quality architectural antiques. www.citysalvage.com		✓
DeConstruction Services ..... 612-728-9388 When remodeling or demolishing, deconstruct to keep materials out of the landfill. The Green Institute provides removal service of usable house fixtures and building materials from salvaging removal to full house dismantling. Customers may receive a tax deduction.		deconstructing services within a 30-mile radius